James Abram Garfield

20th U.S. President

Place and Date of Birth:

James A. Garfield was born on in a log cabin of American myth on Nov. 19, 1831, near Cleveland, Ohio.

Family:

James A. Garfield was the son of Abram and Eliza Ballou Garfield. He was the youngest of five children. He married Lucretia Rudolph Nov. 8, 1858, in Hiram, Ohio. They had five sons and two daughters.

President’s Nickname:

President James Abram Garfield nickname was Jaimei

Education:

Garfield matriculated at the Western Reserve Eclectic Institute, later called Hiram College. He graduated from Williams College and, before he was 30, became a lay preacher for the Disciples of Christ. He taught school briefly and returned to Hiram as a professor an head of the college, but he did not enjoy the life.

Occupation:

He was a general of the civil war

Dates of presidency:

James Abram Garfield was elected president on Nov.4, 1880
Party Affiliation:

James Abram Garfield was a member of the Republican Party Convention (7th)

Interesting facts about James Abram Garfield

- was the third President born in Ohio.
- was the first president whose mother was present at his inauguration.
- was the fourth president to die in the office.
- was the second president to Assassinated.
- was the 1st left handed president.

Vice President:

Chester Alan Arthur, N.Y., succeeded to the death of James Abram Garfield on sep. 19, 1881.

Bibliography:

www.ask.com

www.goolge.com

And the rest from the book.